

The Research Application Workshop

Hosted by PHCRIS and APHCRI

Establishing networks to improve the application of research in policy and practice

Tuesday 11 November

Victoria Suite 2, Level 1, Sofitel Melbourne on Collins

AGENDA

12:30 – 1:00	Registration and Networking lunch
1:00 – 1:05	Acknowledgement of Country Ruth Kearon
1:00 – 1:15	Welcome and Workshop Aims Ellen McIntyre, Director of PHCRIS and Terry Findlay, Head of Programs, APHCRI Network
1:15 – 1:45	Introductions - Who's who in the room Ruth Kearon Professor Martin Westwell
1:45 – 2:15	Thinking from outside the health system Professor Martin Westwell, Director, Flinders Centre for Science Education in the 21st Century, Flinders University
2:15 – 2:45	What I need when I need evidence. The How, When and Where Presentations giving the policy, research and consumer perspective <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Stephanie Miller, Executive Director, Health Consumers Alliance of SA Inc• Lyndal Trevena, Chair, Primary Health Care Research Translation Faculty Steering Group at NHMRC• Chris Carlile, Department of Health
2:45 – 3:30	Group discussion - The How, When and Where Task: How does each organisation see its role and how does it contribute? Aim: To share, listen and spark new ideas and opportunities for collaboration
3:30 – 3:50	Afternoon tea
3:50 – 4:50	Group discussion - Driving the agenda forward Exploring our potential 'collective impact' in developing future strategies and driving the agenda forward
4:50 – 5:00	Next steps
5:00 – 5:15	Summary and close Ellen McIntyre, Director of PHCRIS and Terry Findlay, Head of Programs, APHCRI Network
5:15 – 6:00	Refreshments